

On-Line Course: FHPO

Future Health Professionals of Oregon – (FHPO)

Earn 2 College Credits for Only $60/credit!!

A uniquely designed curriculum for high school students interested in health careers. The course will help students consider, explore and decide on health career paths.

Students will get HIPAA / Universal Precaution / Hand Washing certifications making them eligible for exciting shadow opportunities within the medical field.

Register TODAY at www.neoahec.org (programs/future health professionals/event registration) or contact course instructor, Geoff Robinson at robinsg@eou.edu (541) 962-5589 for more information. Spring term registration deadline: February 10, 2016.

When: FHPO is offered distance education through EOU Spring Term.

Registration Deadline: February 10, 2016. Class starts March 2, 2016.

Who: Open to all high school students.

Where: FHPO can be taken anywhere by using the Internet. There are no campus visits required.

Why: FHPO is a gateway to a health career. Students earn 2 college credits for $60/credit.

Course offered by Northeast Oregon AHEC in collaboration with Eastern Oregon University

One University Blvd.
La Grande, OR 97850

www.neoahec.org
(541) 962-5589

Northeast Oregon
Area Health Education Center